

Charles County Commissioner
BOBBY RUCCI ♦ DISTRICT 4

Commissioner Bobby Rucci, a longtime Charles County resident, is a REALTOR® and the owner of two small businesses in Charles County. He believes strongly that county government should try to provide relief to its homeowners and improve the business climate.

An avid outdoorsman, Commissioner Rucci is also on the Board of Directors of the Charles County Crime Solvers, a member of the La Plata Rotary, and a member of the Charles County Chamber of Commerce.

Commissioner Rucci is the County Commissioner representative on the Board of Fire & Rescue, Charles County Drug and Alcohol Council, and the Fire/EMS Scholarship Committee.

Commissioner Rucci and his wife, Diana, are also supporters of Hospice of Charles County, the Greater Waldorf Jaycees, Angels' Watch Shelter, Civista Health Foundation, Lions Camp Merrick, The Southern Maryland Woman's League, ZONTA, and the Charles County Humane Society. They reside in Waldorf and have three sons: Dominic, Johnny, and Joey.
